Writing Thesis Bootcamp

GERAINT WYN STORY

March 29, 2022 to May 10, 2022
10:00 to 12:00
Online

The Writing Bootcamp is a multi-session online course for final-year PhD students at different institutions associated with BIST, who aim to submit their theses at the end of 2022. The contents offered consist of a balanced mix of theory and tools, practical experience and discussions.

Dates:
29th of March, 5th, 19th, 26th of April, 3rd, 10th of M y 10:00 - 12:00, ONLI

Target audience: Final year PhD students
Available places: 4
Training content:
The course is composed of a total of six 2-hour sessions over 7 weeks in Spring 2022. Sessions 1&2 will be mostly theory based with short exercises to cover much of the skills and know-how of thesis writing, while sessions 3-6 will begin with a 30 min theory session followed by personal writing time.
Trainer: Dr Geraint Wyn Story, Cambridge Training Associates Ltd
Cambridge Training Associates is the trading name of Dr Geraint Wyn Story, who is an experienced professional development trainer
Geraint brings experience from working for some of the world's largest life scienc companies, a PhD from Cambridge, and ten years of working within personal a d professional development. This rare combination of experience and skills, combined with h s down-to-earth style, means that he can bring the best of each of these worlds to benefit yo r organisatio
. Geraint also works very closely with a number of other freelance trainers and profession l development businesses that complement his own work. This network can offer a comple e package to client
How to register for this course
Please, write an email to training@icfo.com
Hosted by: BIST