

ICFO has moved

Now, we are set in a dedicated building in the Mediterranean Technology Park

October 07, 2005

ICFO-The Institute of Photonic Sciences has moved to its new home in the Mediterranean Technology Park, in Castelldefels, in the Metropolitan Barcelona Area.

We are almost full set in our new emplacement. The moving started on September 19th and after a couple of weeks ICFO is operative again in its new home.

ICFO's has moved to a 3.500m² building, which will home one hundred people, using twenty research laboratories, and a nanofabrication lab. By 2007 the whole ICFO building will occupy almost 8.000m².
